President Harding Received the Newly Arrived Ambassador of Italy in the White House Today.

THE President received the new ambassador of Italy, Prince Gelasio Caetani, in the blue room at the White House at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. His excellency was accompanied by the members of the embassy staff.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Denby will be out of town over New Year day and will therefore omit the traditional New Year reception for the personnel of the Navy and Marine Corps in and near Washington.

The Postmaster General and Mrs. Work will entertain at dinner this evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. David Mulvane.

Senator and Mrs. Oddie Take House for Season. Senator and Mrs. Tasker L. Oddie have returned to Washington for the winter, sailing from San Francisco after a visit in Nevada, and coming by way of the Panama canal.

Senator and Mrs. Oddie have located at 2310 Connecticut avenue, where they have with them as guests Mrs. Oddie's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Goodwin of Los Angeles, who sailed with them from San Francisco. Mr. Goodwin will remain in Washington for the month, while Mrs. Goodwin expects to spend the winter here.

Mrs. Oddie will be at home the last Thursday of the month during the season.

Miss Maud Dumont, daughter of the French military attaché and Mrs. Dumont, entertained yesterday at lunch some of her classmates of Georgetown Visitation Convent. Among her guests were Miss Irma Ruppert, Miss Mary O'Hare, Miss Elms Johnson, Miss Rose Berberich.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Weller will be hosts at dinner this evening for their younger daughter, Miss Josephine Weller, and will have as their guests other subalterns and young men home from college for the holidays.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Weller were hosts to a company of twenty-two young people for their debutante daughter, Miss Catherine Weller, who made her formal bow at a large dance last evening at Rauscher's given by Mr. and Mrs. Weller. The guests at the dance numbered about 500, and a buffet supper was served at midnight. The hallways were gay in Christmas decorations, and Mr. and Mrs. Weller and their daughter received in the small reception room, assisted by Miss Frances Wiser of Canada, who is visiting Miss Weller for the holidays. Mrs. Weller wore a gown of black net over silver, and Miss Weller was in cream lace trimmed with fur, the gown made in the fashion of other days with bouffant skirt and a basque waist, and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Miss Wiser wore a gown of silver gauze with a girle of rhinestones.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ellis will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening in compliment to Mr. Justice and Mrs. George Sutherland.

Mrs. Montgomery Blair will receive the guests at the second Junior League "small and early" dance, which will be given this evening at Rauscher's. Mrs. Blair will be assisted by Miss Alice Mann and Miss Olive Graef. A number of dinner parties will be given preceding the dance.

Mrs. William H. Smith, Jr., will give a dinner dance at her charming home near Rockville, New Year eve, and will entertain at dinner January 8, in honor of Senator and Mrs. Tasker L. Oddie.

Col. and Mrs. Herman Glade will entertain at dinner Friday night, January 5, for Maj. Gen. and Mrs. R. C. Davis and others.

The secretary of the British embassy and Mrs. R. Leslie Craigie will entertain a company of fourteen at dinner this evening.

Miss Madeleine Austin entertained a company of eight informally at luncheon today at the Shoreham in honor of Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett, 2d, who is spending the holidays with Mr.

Blodgett's mother, Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett.

Mrs. Kautz, wife of Capt. Austin Kautz, entertained a company of ten at luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Pelly, mother of the counselor of the Hungarian legation.

Mr. and Mrs. David St. Pierre Gallard will entertain a company at dinner this evening in the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett, in her apartment at the Dresden.

Mrs. Davenport White will be at home informally Sunday afternoon after 4 o'clock and will receive again Sunday afternoon, January 1, after 4 o'clock, in her apartment at the Dresden.

Dr. and Mrs. White will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening at the Chevy Chase Club, when their guests will number fifty-eight.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Scott Thropp will entertain a company of eighteen at dinner this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley P. Wilson will be hosts at dinner this evening, entertaining in their home, Hollis Hall, near Alexandria.

The minister of Ecuador and Senora de Elizalde entertained a company of twenty at dinner last evening in honor of the minister of Chile to Colombia, Senor Don Luis Oregio.

Congressional Hosts at Dinner for New Yorkers.

Representative and Mrs. Fred A. Britten entertained a company at dinner last evening in their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitsch of New York, in whose honor the dinner was given, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horton of New York, who are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Pitsch.

The former third assistant secretary of state and Mrs. Breckinridge Long were hosts at dinner last evening in their home on 18th street, entertaining a company of thirty.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Langhorne were hosts at dinner last evening in their apartment at the Connecticut.

Capt. and Mrs. William Dugald MacDougall entertained a company of eighteen at dinner last evening for their daughter, Miss Charlotte MacDougall, in honor of Miss Lillian Seabury, debutante niece of Capt. and Mrs. Austin Kautz, and the company later went to the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Weller gave for their debutante daughter, Miss Catherine Weller.

Commissioner and Mrs. Rudolph entertained at a supper party last evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. A. Pembroke Thom.

Miss Julia Hume, a debutante of last season, entertained at a bridge tea at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Virginia Edwards and Miss Alice Milburn, two of this winter's buds. There were eight tables of bridge. Mrs. John L. Edwards and Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thom presided at the tea table.

Mrs. J. A. Baxter entertained at a luncheon today at the Hotel Gordon for her schoolgirl daughter, Miss Elizabeth Davenport Baxter. The company were Miss Anita Elizalde, Miss Lila Roosevelt, Miss Imogene Taylor, Miss Katherine Lackay, Miss Elizabeth Rucker, Miss Ellen Crenshaw, Miss Elizabeth Wrenn, Miss Helen Dapray, Miss Anne Gains and Miss Anita Caldwell.

Mrs. Horace Lee Wronn and Mrs. Julian J. Mason entertained at a beautifully arranged dance at the Wyoming last evening for their schoolgirl daughters, Miss Elizabeth Wrenn and Miss Maud Mason. There were about 150 guests, most of whom were school associates.

Mrs. William R. Harr of Chevy Chase, Md., and her daughter, Mrs.
